In Matthew 26:26-28, the Lord invites us to receive His very body and blood in, with, and under the bread and wine for the forgiveness of sins, the strengthening of faith and the assurance of salvation. Communion distribution will be continuous flow. Once the elements have been consecrated and placed on the pedestals you are invited to come forward and receive both the bread (or gluten free wafer) and the wine (or grape juice). Once everyone has returned to their seats the Lord's Supper will be received together.
